CHINESE SAYS ROBBERS TOOK HIS MONEY

Wailuku, Sept. 14.—A Wailuku Chinaman claims, and he is still claiming, that he was held up two nights ago by four negroes and robbed of $50. He says he was on his way home to Wailuku from Waikapu. Three of the men held him while the fourth made away with the treasure towards the sandhills. The Chinaman cannot distinctly state whether his assailants were negroes or Porto Ricans as some of the latter are very dark, especially on a dark night. At any rate he is sure the highwaymen carried away $50 and not 50 cents as some believe. A lone highwayman can overpower this pake, but he asserts with great emphasis that three men with dark visages held him. Most of the Chinese in town, however, believe the story of their countryman.

HOSPITALITY IN HANA

Wailuku, Sept. 14.—John D. Holt of Honolulu and Messrs. W. T. Robinson, Geo. Wright and T. B. Lyons of Wailuku, took the Claudine last Wednesday afternoon for Hana. They all returned today and were loud in their praises of Hana hospitality. The Hana club did their best to make the stay of the malihinis enjoyable. Magistrate Josepa of Hana threw his house open to the visitors and a big luau was given on Thursday evening in their honor. Manager Gross of Kipahulu also extended Kipahulu hospitality to the boys who state that their trip had been nothing but a series of luus and right royal treatment wherever they went.

HONS-WALDEYER WEDDING

Wailuku, Sept. 14.—The marriage of Miss Milla Hons, sister of Attorney Geo. Hons, to Carl Waldeyer, tunnel engineer, will take place at the Anglican church, Wailuku, next Tuesday, Sept. 17. Rev. Wm. Aul officiating. After the ceremony, a reception will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Oge. The next morning the newly married couple will repair to the Makale mansion at Rose Ranch, Uluapala, where they will enjoy their honeymoon.

SPURS AND A HORSE.

Wailuku, Sept. 14.—One of the do Rego boys gave a public exhibition on High street last Sunday morning on how to train a vicious horse. The animal was and indeed would not move. The rider used spurs and the horse's sides were covered with blood. The harder the spurs were put into the sides, the higher the horse kicked, but still refused to move. It was a bloody exhibition by a kicking horse. The horse was returned to his stables when the horseman became exhausted using the spurs, and realized that force was useless to a stubborn horse.

PACIFIC UNION OIL CO.

Located in the Famous Coalinga Oil Fields of California.
Proven oil lands, completely surrounded by as rich oil-producing wells as there are in the State, yielding from 50 to 250 barrels per day.
Contract prices for oil at the Coalinga wells, 70 cents per barrel.
With twenty-five producing wells of 100 barrels each per day, you can make your own calculation as to profit.
The oil industry of California is in its infancy, yet many fortunes have been made by judicious and lucky investments in oil stock. Many more will be made in the near future.
The average advance on original sales of oil stock in twenty leading companies in California has been from $1 to $108 per share.
Oil lands have advanced from $1.25 to $1.00 and $2.00 per acre.
When the Pacific Union Oil Company has a number of producing wells on its property, its stock will have the same show for even a greater advance, as some oil stock has advanced from $1 to $1,500 per share.
The Pacific Union Oil Company has no salaried officers, and is controlled by well-known gentlemen of integrity, who will see that the money derived from the sale of stock will be legitimately applied to the development of its property.
For further information, apply to J. H. FISHER & CO. Stock and Bond Brokers, and Hawaiian agents for the sale of a limited amount of Pacific Union Oil Company stock. Stangenwald building, Merchant street. 1902-6mo

LET THE JURY OUT.

Just before noon on Saturday Mr. Ballou for defendant moved for dismissal in the trial of J. Loeffler vs. Palama Cooperative Grocery Co. and the jury was excused till 1:30. Afterward the lawyers argued and Judge Little granted the nonsuit. This let the jury out for which they were doubtless glad on the bright Saturday afternoon.
